11th conference of the European Study Group on Cardiovascular Oscillations
Pisa, Italy - April 27th-29th, 2020

Computation and Modelling in Physiology New Challenges and Opportunities

Call for papers

It is our pleasure to invite contributions to the 11th ESGCO meeting. The aim of the conference is to provide researchers an interdisciplinary forum to discuss cardiovascular oscillations, drawing ideas from a wide scientific spectrum including physics, mathematics, engineering, computer science, neuroscience and neuroengineering, time-series analysis, theory of nonlinear oscillatory dynamics, information processing, cardiovascular and microvascular physiology, cell biology and clinical sciences.

Submit your paper: <http://esgco2020.unipi.it/submission-instructions>

Important facts/dates

- Submission opens: 1 May, 2019
- Submission deadline: 3 November, 2019
